

Copernicus Climate Change Service | Copernicus Atmosphere Monitoring Service

Agenda

C3S User Interaction Session with the Czech user community

PROGRAMME OF
THE EUROPEAN UNION

IMPLEMENTED BY

C3S User Interaction Session with the Czech user community

Venue: City Conference Centre - City Empiria
Na Strži 65/1702, 140 00 Prague 4

Moderator: Alice Ferrant (Ramboll)

12.30 – On-site check-in and coffee

Plenary session Empiria hall

13.00 – Welcome and introductions

General introduction and logistics of the afternoon

Alice Ferrant (Ramboll)

Welcome remarks from the Czech Hydrometeorological Institute

Libor Černíkovský, (Director for Meteorology and Climatology)

Welcome remarks from the Copernicus Climate Change Service

Carlo Buontempo (Director of C3S, ECMWF)

13.15 – Introduction of the Copernicus Climate Change Service (C3S)

Presentation of C3S and updates – André Obregón (Senior Technical Officer, ECMWF)

Q&A session

13.45 – C3S use cases and success stories in Czechia

Evaluation of ten satellite-based and reanalysis precipitation datasets on a daily basis for Czechia (2001-2021)

Dr. Daniel Paluba (Charles University) and Dr. Vojtech Bliznak (Institute of Atmospheric Physics CAS)

Applying C3S Data in Practice: Risk Tools for Agriculture, Fire, Drought and Climate Change

Petr Štěpánek (CHMI, CzechGlobe)

Turning C3S data into business opportunities

Michal Babacek (EUSPA)

Q&A session

14.45 – Coffee break - Main Foyer

Breakout training sessions

15.15 – Information-focused learners - Empiria hall

Training session and user requirements collection

15.15 – Data and analysis-focused learners - Tower hall

Training session and user requirements collection

16.55 – Wrap up remarks

UK: (Headquarters) ECMWF, Shinfield
Park, Shinfield Road, Reading,
RG2 9AX, UK

Italy: ECMWF, Tecnopolo di Bologna,
Via Stalingrado 84/3, 40128 Bologna,
Italia

Germany: ECMWF, Robert-Schuman-
Platz 3, 53175 Bonn, Deutschland

Contact: xxxxx@ecmwf.int